What's so special about our pizza? Everything.

Dough
You won't find this flavor-packed pizza crust at any other pizza joint. There's no oil in our secret recipe dough. It's simply made with the best dry ingredients available, plus a healthy dose of salt to bring out all the flavor goodness. Why saturate dough with oil when it doesn't need it?

Black Pepper
You probably won't see it, but you can taste it. We season all our pies with black pepper, sprinkled directly on the dough and under the sauce. It cooks through until you can't help but ask, "What do they put in their pizza that makes it taste so good?"

Olive Oil
Another thing you might not see, but you'll be sure to enjoy: we lightly brush every pie with olive oil before anything goes on it. It's an essential element to making an amazing pie that brings out the texture and flavor of our pizza — from crust to center.

Roma Tomatoes
If you are going to cook a tomato, it should be a roma tomato. It's known for being consistent in quality, firmness and year-round flavor. The roma becomes even more delicious when it cooks up — it's sweeter than other tomatoes.

Tomato Sauce
We know from years of experimenting that a sauce low in acidity tastes better — and it doesn't give you heartburn either. We use San Marzano tomatoes from the base of Mt. Vesuvius in Italy. The soil there produces a sweet and crisp tomato that is low in acidity and that makes a great sauce.

Herbs
Every day, our cooks chop fresh-picked herbs for our pies. Oregano, basil and cilantro. We're all about fresh in our kitchen.

Mozzarella
We never skimp on flavor. That's why we've recruited Wisconsin Jersey Cows to make our delicious mozzarella. Whole milk equals whole flavor, so we don't need to use as much to pack a flavor punch for your taste buds.

Pepperoni
We've tested, tasted and perfected the pepperoni pie. We know that each pepperoni slice has got to be the right size and thickness to crisp up when we bake it. And it's got to have some kick too. Try it yourself and you'll get what we're talking about.

Deck Ovens
A pie has to bake from the bottom to the top to taste just right. It's all about consistency. Our pizzas are cooked on stones that are 3 inches thick in deck ovens that are kept at just over 500 degrees — for a perfectly stellar pie every time.

Real ingredients = real flavor.
